METHODIST REVIVAL.

The Methodist Revival Meeting is helpful, inspiring, and soul-digging Gospel messages from time to time. We regret very much that many of I am sending similar letters to each have not as yet entered into the meeting. We are hoping for better things during the next few days. Come on, ye Methodists; if you don't enter into this meeting, how shall we expect those who are not Methodists to do so? PARAMOUNT FILMS AT LOCAL THEATRE THIS WEEK.

Harold Lloyd timidly makes his way from milkman obscurity to fighting fame in his new Paramount comedy, "The Milky Way, which shows at the Colonial Theatre tonight and Saturday. He bridges the gap between self-doubt and the instincts of the killer. Trouble comes to the ctacled comedian when two drunken fighters take a dislike to him. One swings at him, but Lloyd both frightened and fast on his feet, manages to duck. The middleweight champion gets the full brunt of the blow intended for the milkman, and is knocked our Methodist members and friends and henceforward must make good out. Lloyd takes credit for the punch and repeat his prowess in the ring as a title contender. The supporting cast of players consists of Adolphe Menjou, Verree Teasdale, Helen Mack, William Gargan, Dorothy Wilson and George Barbier. Pretty Katherine DeMille supplies the heart interest opposite Tom Keene in "Drift Fence", the new action drama which shows at the Colonial Monday and Tuesday nights. It is set in Arizona during the early days when rustlers took the law in their own hands. The cast also includes Larry Crabbe, Benny Baker, Glenn Erikson, Staniey Andrews, Effie Ellsler and Jan Duggan.

QUIHI NOTES.

God has heard the voice of the lad. Gen. 21: 17, It's good old news that children are privileged characters with God. Christ ought to know, and he asserts, "That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father," for daily instructions and blessings. we assume. Their simplicity, their unreserved and unsophisticated na-ture makes them doubly welcome with the Giver of grace and graces, makes their humble attitude the model for their more or less adulterated forbcars and guardians. And Christ is glad to identify himself with their welfare, speaking unmis-takably, Whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me. Do they know it, appreciate the honor, make daily use of that intimate relation by their, Abba, Father? Ishmael, the lad in our text, had not forgotten it. He was a "wild one", a mocker oftentimes, but when the emergency arose—and God often puts them point blank-he remembered the lesson learned at home, remembered the Father in heaven whose name all earthly fathers bear. though often forgetting the whence of that distinguished title. But what of the mother, Hagar? Is she merely pouting, worrying, agonizing, complaining and despairing over her comedown and broken fortunes, her ill-starred course and impending doom? No sigh heavenward for relief, no prayer? "Can a woman forget her child?" Many a mother today can do it with the greatest ease and without compunctions. The rush ergency crop and feed loans of daily routine, cracked-up matriyear 1936, as authorized by monial ties, the combat and competition for a livelihood, the swirl of soary 28, are available now.
